THE NUTRITION PROGRAM

The goal of the Nutrition Program at Highland Valley Elder Services is to make sure that every person over 60 receives at least one nutritionally balanced meal each day. The menu, created by a Registered Dietitian, is compliant with national nutrition standards for older adults. Meals are free to all who qualify. Donations are gratefully accepted.

LOCAL DINING CENTERS

Older adults can choose to have a hot noon meal plus social engagement, or take a meal to go at a number of local dining centers throughout our 24-town area. Community diners are encouraged to join the Nutrition Project Council which provides feedback directly to program administrators. Twice per year, enjoy a Lunch and Learn with a registered dietitian who will discuss educational topics during lunch.

HOME DELIVERED MEALS

For those who qualify, a hot, healthy meal prepared in our own kitchen can be delivered to your home. This program includes a daily check-in from a driver, who has your well-being in mind. Evening and weekend meals are also available.

Some comments from our Home Delivered Meal Recipients-

"We are still in our home, thanks to your meals."

"Highland Valley's meals program is tremendously helpful to our family."

"My dad enjoys the meals and getting to choose his entrees."
